Interim Pastor's Column

As you know, the church has called Pastor Greg King to be the new called Pastor and he will begin October 1st. Therefore my time as your Interim will come to an end on September 15th; my last Sunday will be the 11th. The Diaconate will line up supply for the last 2 Sundays. Sue and I have enjoyed our time with you and getting to know some of you, and we are sorry we have not gotten to know more of you on a more personal basis. We hope you will receive Pastor Greg & Patti with open arms and welcome them into your homes, the church, and community. Invite them into your home for a meal or take them out to one of the many fine eating places in the wider Chamberlain area. Interact with them more than just at the "church". Especially remember that at Holiday times; they do not have family in the area, are usually not able to go to family because of local church activities, and may not have any family coming to be with them.

I will be returning to retirement and my home church of First Congregational UCC in Sioux Falls. We do have a number of weekend activities already planned for the next few months; some of which will involve getting our camper out that has not seen much use this year. We will not forget you and probably will be out to camp, fish, golf, and visit in the Chamberlain area in the months and years to come. When Pastor Greg takes a vacation Sunday, I might even be free to Supply if the Diaconate wants me.

Public school has already started and September 11th is the beginning of Sunday Church School and the changing of Worship time to 10:30 am. The choir will probably sing that Sunday as well, as their first rehearsal will be on the 7th. So Summer is nearly over, vacationing is pretty much done until the Holidays, so it would be a good time to recommit to attending worship on a regular basis. It would be nice to fill the church and get in the habit of attending before your new Pastor gets here in October.

Unfortunately we will not be having the Searles here as missionary speakers. Sunday dates were all taken before we could settle on one that was good for here and the feeling was that a mid-week evening would not be very well attended. Maybe the next time Missionary speakers are in the area they can come here.

Again thanks for the welcome and support you have given me during my 11 months of Interim with you, and my God continue to bless you and your church in the years ahead.

Pastor Duane
